

Details are sought from individuals or businesses engaged in providing quality homely food to run a Student's mess on TDU Campus.

On average, 60 students are expected to dine at the mess for all their meals. 10-15 non-students may be expected for breakfast and lunch. Food must be of high quality and consist of South-Indian and North-Indian items, with a total daily budget in the range of Rs 100/ day. Lunch and dinner must include 1 vegetable, 1 pulse/ beans (kalu), chapati and rice (unlimited), buttermilk (limited). Breakfast should serve tea/coffee (limited) and 1 item (dosa/idli/rice item/parantha - unlimited).

Kindly submit a document with the following information:

1. Name, Address, Contact Number, Email Address
2. A proposed weekly menu (7 days) for breakfast, lunch and dinner. Total cost per day for this menu for students. For non-students costs can be indicated per item. 10-15 non-students are expected each day for breakfast and lunch. Weekly menu should include Poori (twice a week), Sweet (once a week), 1 special meal (weekends like Biryani)
3. Snack items that can be served on payment basis. These can include items such as Eggs, Milk, Curd, Bakery items, Fruits, Fried items (for tea time), Sandwiches, Fruit juice etc.
4. Experience, if any, with running Student Mess/ Eatery/ Hotel.

TDU will provide kitchen space and accommodation for up to 2-persons in a studio apartment on campus. Available facilities can be inspected upon request. Please contact TDU for an appointment to visit the premises. You can send an email to Mr. PJ Alexander, Joint Registrar (Admin) at pj.alex@tdu.edu.in or call 080-28568000 for further details.